To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Cristo L. Bowers

Most people probably think an avatar is a tall blue creature shown in one of James Cameron's movies. But the origin of the term "avatar" stems from Hinduism – that it's a divine being who descended to Earth to have human form for a particular spiritual purpose. Cristo is such an avatar though he is too modest to use that term. Instead Cristo calls himself a clairvoyant and a psychic, but he is much more than that. I have met other clairvoyants and psychics who have powers that are puny in comparison, in that their readings are not much more than educated guesses based on an understanding of psychology and some ability to see auras. In contrast, Cristo provides readings that literally assess a person's core matrix in the energetic field, identifying one's archetypes, belief structures including those that are detrimental and limiting to one's growth, and can evaluate the functioning of the chakras. His readings are like laser beams in identifying the roots of one's stumbling blocks that impede people from living their lives to the fullest.

I had a 2-hour reading followed by a couple 30-minute phone consultations with Cristo that have literally transformed my life and by attending several of his lectures I have a better understanding of this process. I had an inkling of some of my blocks prior to our private reading, but he clearly identified them (and there were several!) and I was surprised by some of his insights that upon reflection made perfect sense. As Cristo said, his one reading saved me another 10-20 years of hard luck learning, and given that I'm already 48 years old I greatly appreciate the time savings so that I can live my life as a confident, strong, balanced and loving person at an optimum level of functioning and energy. My homework following my talks with Cristo involved listening to the recordings of our conversations, mediating and contemplating upon the information, and saying mantras (affirmations in English) that he provided. That work provided amazing results and was further enhanced by my use of the crystals Cristo had "charged" to restore full functioning of each chakra (see my testimonial re: my experience using these crystals).

So the healing that I have undergone over the past two weeks is profound, incredible, and truly miraculous! I truly feel that I am like one of the people healed by Christ over 2000 years ago. I believe that Cristo is at that same level of spiritual evolution and maturity; that he fully embodies the Christ consciousness and is truly an avatar. What I am saying is profound for me, given that I am a scientist who, until a few years ago, was agnostic and before that was raised in the Catholic faith where such statements would be regarded as heresy. Fortunately we live in a time where we are not burned at the stake for making such statements!

Words cannot adequately describe Cristo's healing abilities and his skills as a teacher conveying this learning, so I encourage you to attend his information sessions and book a private reading with him to experience miraculous healing. The only people I have observed who were not completely transformed by Cristo's guided information are those who refused to listen and do the homework because of their egos. So my advice to you is to put your ego aside and accept the healing messages

Cristo provides you through your heart space and then watch in amazement how you blossom into a magnificent divine being, as you are meant to be. God bless you!

Sincerely,

C.Y.
